“ I hope this finds a loved one well;

Gloria was friends with my grandparents, as was Warren. We were so close as friends that I grew up calling them Uncle Warren and Aunt Gloria. I remember Uncle Warrant always staying busy making candles and wood carvings in the basement of his house on Foxboro Drive. He drew a rooster on a piece of scrap wood and showed me how to cut it out with his bandsaw. I am pretty sure I still have this somewhere in a box with all of my childhood knickknacks. Gloria was as wonderful as my own grandmother and would treat me like family. I remember several parties, many Christmas parties in their living room.

While working on my own family tree, I came upon some images of the old monroeville house on Foxboro Drive. I was instantly reminded of some of the most magical childhood memories I have, because of my grandparents, and particularly two of their best friends, Warren and Gloria. The annual Monroeville Rotary pancake breakfast, that was when we got to see all of the old guys running around with an apron on. What a great crew of friends they all were.

I wish to send many blessings and love to whomever receives this message as their memory will live forever in my heart. Time tends to pull us all away from the friends and memories that once felt like they would never end. I am sorry that I could not properly say goodbye. The picture of Gloria, her magnetic smile, is just how I remember her. At Christmas time, in church, I remember I would sing "Angels we have heard on high" tune and I always thought the song was about her... and why wouldn't I ... I would sing..."Glo.....or...or....or...or....or...oria, lives next door to grandpa...."

My name is Richard Manning, my grandparents were Ruth and Dick Manning, fellow rotarians who resided right across the street.. I am eternally grateful for having known Gloria & Warren Pfof, they will always be my Aunt and Uncle.

“ Growing up on Foxboro Drive, the Pfof house was one of the favorites. I fondly remember Halloween night with hot chocolate served on their front porch, games and camp outs in the backyard. Mr. and Mrs. Pfof and the girls were special neighbors and friends. Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss.
