

Jane C. Earnest

April 9, 1920 - April 3, 2020

Jane C. Earnest, 99, a resident of Redstone Highlands, North Huntingdon, passed away on Friday, April 3, 2020. She was born during the Spanish Flu pandemic in 1920 and died during the current Corona Virus pandemic in 2020. She wasn't called Calamity Jane for nothing! Also known as Grandma Honeybunch, and GG (Great Grandma), she lit up a room upon entering and, if she wasn't playing the piano for all to sing along, she was letting everyone know how much she enjoyed them. Jane's favorite pastimes besides music were the Steelers, Pirates and Penguins and playing bridge. Her true love was her husband, John, and the rest of her family. She became a treasure to all at Redstone where she volunteered for as many things as she could. Greeting all with a grin and a twinkle in the eye, she made everyone feel noticed and important. Described with a fiery personality by one of her granddaughters, Jane lived life to the fullest, leaving no experience un-lived. She leaves behind a legacy of love and a grateful family for having known her. Jane is survived by her children, Richard Earnest, Sandi Kocian, Sally Wilson and Steve Earnest, and her many grandchildren and great grandchildren. Due to the Corona Virus pandemic, viewing and funeral services will be private. A memorial service will be held at a later time. Interment will be in Union Cemetery in Irwin. In lieu of flowers a contribution in her name can be made to Redstone Mission Support and Development, 126 Mathews Street, Suite 1000, Greensburg, PA 15601. The William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin, is in charge of arrangements. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.

“ Jane was an amazing and fiery woman. I would look forward to the days when she was on my schedule to see her at Redstone. I love talking to her about all her kids, especially Sandy, and talking about playing the piano. I will always remember the joy she got when i made her a good cup of coffee. I will miss Jane very much, My condolences and prayers are with you.

“ Jane volunteered in the Redstone Gift Shop on “Hot Dog Day” when I was manager there. She was full of life, fun & laughter! I loved spending time with her. Although Heaven has welcomed a very special person, we still feel sorrow & will miss her. But when I think of her her, I will always smile! Rest In Peace, Jane.

“ Sorry to hear, she was a great friend. She just lived one street back for years. Great bridge player.
