“ Millie was a woman who loved life, her children, and being social. She loved to dance and knew how to celebrate life. She shared her joy with everyone she met. God bless.

“ Mila Mila Mila, you're Our One and Only.
You changed my life over the years of daily talks. Your laughter, your joy, your love for Miller aka "Superman" was a loving experience to witness ...your love for your family and dear friends, you were the life at every gathering, polkas to dance and sing to, you and Franya a dear friendship, you were a leader and a faithfilled heart. You opened your home to many family gatherings filled with lots of love, food and song. All our lives were blessed by you. I love you dear Mila and you will always be The One and Only, XO Charlenka “ Words cannot express the love and kindness Aunt Mila had for everyone who knew her. I'm guessing she was 1 in 10 million, maybe more. My husband and I will certainly miss her all the rest of our lives.

Her kindness, generosity and love of life was higher than any bar could measure. In caring for guests, she gave all she could to make them happy and comfortable. No warm up on coffee, only a whole, fresh, hot cup would do.

She loved her Polka music and she was the only person who could do a perfect Oberek with me.

Aunt Mila's smile and her warmth for everyone was as warm as the sun. She always met you at the door with a hug and kiss.

Someone once said, "A life is not important except in the impact it has on other's lives."

Both she and her beloved husband, Uncle Miller, impacted more lives that anyone could ever count. They were two peas in the same pod.
