“ Where do I start to share my love and sympathy to all of Vivian's family. Ove the last 22 years of my ministry with you, you have always been there - with Mom - to share in the love of God and in the love for all God's children. There are so many memories which will keep Vivian alive in my heart, and I rejoice that she has entered her heavenly home with her Lord, and all her family and friends who have gone before. I can hear all the chatter around the table now, as they catch up with one another.

Prayers for all of you, and know that you will always have her with you in your heart.

Love you , Vivian,
