

Adam G. Eisaman

May 28, 1975 - December 14, 2025

Adam G. Eisaman, 50, of Irwin, died Sunday, December 14, 2025, at home. He was born May 28, 1975 in McKeesport, a son of Mary Lou (Adams) Eisaman of Irwin and the late Gerald M. "Jerry" Eisaman. Adam was a 1993 graduate of Hempfield Area Senior High School, graduated from Muskingum University, New Concord, Oh., then received his Doctor of Chiropractic from Life University, Atlanta, Ga. He was an avid disc golfer and was instrumental in developing a disc golf course at Oak Hollow Park in North Huntingdon. He participated in regional disc golf tournaments and was active in developing interest in the sport and disc golf leagues. He was a passionate outdoorsman and sportsman and was also a foodie and loved to cook. In addition to his mother he is survived by his brother Eric Eisaman and sisters Elise (and Frank) Gwynn, Gwen (and Brad) Smith and Amy (and Jeremy) Nutting; his nieces and nephews Krystal and Brett Gwynn, Preston and Hunter Smith, Kennedy Dorta, and Tyler, Liam, and Reid Nutting; his great nephew and nieces Wilder, Reese, and Juniper; many cousins; and his beloved chihuahua Weezy. There will be no viewing. A memorial service will be held at a later date. The William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin is handling arrangements. “ Adam was a slice of home when I first moved to Atlanta, my chiropractor & a good friend. We had so many fun times throughout the years, especially rooting for all our Pgh teams here in Atlanta to Nashville to home in Pittsburgh. I will always cherish & be grateful to call you friend. You were such a kind soul & will be missed so much....RIP, Adam.

“ I knew Adam through Disc Golf. He was a great friend and I always enjoyed hanging out and working on course projects with him. He will be missed greatly.

I hope these photos I took over the years help his family and friends. He also helped me out with Disc Golf videos over the years for my YouTube channel (Disc Golf Examiner). I will post a link below, if you want to see him in a video.
