

Alfred Richards

September 13, 1924 - November 5, 2015

Alfred Richards, 91, of Homestead, FL, formerly of Irwin, died peacefully in his sleep, November 5, 2015, in North Shore Hospital, Miami, FL, following a short illness.

Alfie was born September 13, 1924 in Irwin to the late Jay and Elizabeth Richards and served in the US Army during World War II. He worked for US Steel, Edgar Thompson Works, as a crane operator for 40 years, retiring in 1983. He married his beloved wife, Eva in 1975 and they moved to Key Largo, FL, in 1983, then Homestead, FL in 2005. Alfie most enjoyed relaxing at home and fishing, however he often indulged his wife's love of travel by taking her all over the world and on frequent cruises. Alfie is survived by his step children, Ken Zack of Hollister, CA, Kathy Klingensmith of Fayetteville, NC, Ron (Angie) Zack of Irwin, Chris (Tammy) Zack of Jeannette, and Terri Touchon of Ocala, FL; 7 step grandchildren; 10 step great grandchildren; 1 step great-great grandchild; 6 nieces and nephews; and numerous cousins. Alfie was preceded in death by his parents, his beloved wife Eva Richards; his step son, Mike Zack; his brother George Richards; and his sister Grace Simon. At Alfie's request there will be no services. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.
