“ Betty was such a fun loving friend. Always smiling and had that quirky smile that you fell in love with her the minute you met her. She will be missed by so many friends. One fond memory I have of her is exercising in the basement at Linway every weekday. Anyone who worked for the preschool and came down to set up the room for bike days were instant friends. She always asked about our families and what was up with the preschool. We were thankful for her friendship and will miss seeing in "her" pew on Sunday mornings. Hugs for all of you. Pam and Scott, you took such good care of your mom and I'm sure you have some great and also sad memories of her but just think your Dad is hugging her and showing her around heaven.

“ Pam and Lori,
My deepest sympathies to you both on the loss of your mom. May Jesus wrap his loving arms around you in comfort. I will remember your mom's smile and laugh along with my childhood summer visits. You both and your families are in my families thoughts and prayers.
