

Carl D. Hughes

January 1, 1936 - December 23, 2023

Carl D. Hughes, 87, of North Huntingdon, died Saturday, December 23, 2023. He was born January 1, 1936 in Vincentown, New Jersey, a son of the late James and Kathryn (Mellich) Hughes. He was a brother of the late James Hannah Hughes Jr, Rebecca Hughes, Mary Hughes, and Ann Hughes. They were all born on and raised on the family farm. Carl was no stranger to hard work. Carl attended college for 2 years, where he played trombone off and on with bands and acquired the nickname "Windy". Afterward, he made the decision to enlist into the US Army and was honorably discharged. Carl was the retired owner of C and S Adjustors, of North Huntingdon Township, Pennsylvania. He operated a successful collection agency for 27 years until he retired in 1997. He assisted in the planning, development and construction of his 12 townhouses built in North Huntingdon. He also built with, John Brozak, and his daughter Jules Hughes, his summer home on River Forest Country Club, fulfilling one of his dreams. He loved boating, skiing, dancing, jazz music, and woodworking. Carl was an amazing father. He is survived by his children Jules M. Hughes of North Huntingdon, Chaira Hughes of Tempe, AZ, and Jaime Hughes of Phoenix, AZ, and his granddaughter Jemma Hughes. He was loved by many. He had the most generous heart. There will be no viewing or services. The William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin, is in charge of arrangements. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.
