“ *Our paths crossed through our parents who were lifelong friends of Tony & Josephine Gosik. None of you may remember the Slonceski family but your Mother was always glad to see me and my Mom when we shopped at Monroeville Mall after all of us grew up and made our own lives. She will be remembered as a gracious lady. May she rest in peace as she is reunited with her family above. Our family extends our deepest sympathy to your family at this sad time. “ "Our sincere condolences to Caroline's family. She will always be remembered as the most gracious and loving person to Mitch, Margaret, David & Michele Evanovich. Caroline always brought a smile to our dad's bakery (Mitchel's) in East McKeesport and was the most gracious and popular of Dad's staff. In later years she always talked to Margaret and inquired asked about us kids. Caroline will be missed, but now enjoys the blessings and happiness of that golden city around God's throne. Soon we will all meet again. Goodbye for now dear Caroline.

“ My deepest condolences to Caroline's entire family. Janet, Chris, and Al, no one showed more love for their mother than the three of you. It was a pleasure to get to be with your family at Nature Park.

Sincerely

Megan Buttari and the entire dietary staff
