“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Cunningham when her son, Mike invited me spend the day and night with them in their home. I really enjoyed meeting Mrs. Cunningham and the hours of time we spoke. I found her to be very genuine and fun to be around. She even got me to play my harmonica for her. Mrs. Cunningham, you lifted my spirit with your gentle voice and your personality. You are forever going to be missed.

Mike and I pledge the Theta Chi Fraternity together along with 7 other awesome guys. We are a very close nit group. We consider ourselves like actual blood brothers.

“ Dear Family of "Aunt Kay", We send our sympathy and prayers to all of you. No matter how long we have our parents it is always a painful loss. I remember her from when I was a little girl at family times with my Aunt Virginia, her sister. Kay was a sweet person always and now a cherished Angel.
