“ *Dear Ken and Matt,
So sorry to hear of Chris's death. We went through grad school together at Pitt then worked at Mellon together for many years. She tried to get me to teach at community college and I should have listened to her. I will always remember her quiet but bright smile and how her eyes would light up when she talked about you. I will pray for strength for you in the coming days. Sincerely. Ellen Guinther*

“ Ken and Matt,

Deepest sympathy to both of you on the passing of your beloved wife and mother, I didn't know her well but I could always see the love she had for you in her eyes. May her quiet strength and love surround you as you struggle with your sorrow on this heartbreaking loss.

“ The tears are coming. She and my sister went through grade school, high school, and were college roommates. She was like my older sister. One story that stands out in my head is that when I was 12 she pierced my ear with a sewing needle, ice cubes, and a bar of soap. I say ear because after the first ear I said no way am I having the second one done. Rest in peace Christine and give Laurie a hug for me.

My deepest sympathy to you both. I also hung around with Laurie and Christine through grade school and high school I recently ran into her while she was taking her mom for her doctor visits. I am so sorry. I am sure Laurie and Chris have been reunited and catching up. Rest in peace and give Laurie a hug for me also.
