“ Hello family. I am lucky in a way. I get to remember my sister as she was. A caring and loving sister, wife ,mother, grandmother and great grandmother. The failing health of both of us had prevented us from getting together in these last years, and it is preventing me from being there today. But I am there in spirit and Sis and I had talked about this situation on earlier phone calls. Although almost 13 years my senior, she was always my baby sister. I was Dorie's and Sis's living baby doll I was told. In fact it was not until I was in 2nd grade that I became aware little boys did not wear a dress. I know she is in a better and peaceful place now with Dad, Mom, and Dorie. Bob, I can not imagine what you are feeling, but my heart goes out to you. After Dad's death so long ago you have been like a father to me. And as such, we did not always see eye to eye. But I never stopped loving you as a brother and mentor. Be strong and remember you have a great family that will support you and love you.

I will stop now as my emotions are just swirling. But to the rest of the family--stay close, remember your Mom to the little ones because I know she loved you one and all.

With all my love

Uncle Bud

Just a note from me...I did not get to spend much time with you as a family. It is a little hard to travel, especially for Jake. Sis was always sweet with me and I did enjoy the times we got to visit on the phone. As hard as it is, it is worse to watch someone you love suffer. Her time on this earth has been well spent with her family. She is out of pain now and can be at peace. What a happy reunion with her parents!! I'm glad she can experience that now, it has been such a long time without them both.

Love each other and remember the happy times with her, she will appreciate that.

Love you! Cyndy
