“ Sue Ann and I are very sorry to learn of Cynthia's passing. But we are glad that she now enjoys the vision of God, through her faithful savior, Jesus Christ, who loves her so. We are also very sorry to have missed today's memorial service—we only learned of it this evening, alas, too late to attend.

Cynthia was always very kind to me, and I remember with affection and gratitude her willing and gracious hospitality to the far-from-steady young man I was in the 1970s, when I was so often at her home on Shenandoah Drive in Penn Hills.

I also remember with gratitude her forthright spiritual wisdom, which from time to time she graciously aimed in my direction, usually at moments when I much needed it.

May God bless her memory to all her family and friends.

She awaits now, with all the saints, the consummation of the ages, when death itself shall die—the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, at the Coming of the Lord Jesus.

May God bless you, Jan and Dwight, and the whole family.
