“ Angela, Shay and all, there are no words that will comfort you during this time. Your mom was always so sweet and the love she had for all of you and those grand babies, it was endless. Everytime I saw her at the store, she had another great story to tell about those babies! She was beautiful inside and out and the world will be a bit darker with out her.

“ Shayla was in Kindergarten & my son, Austin was in 1st grade. Cindy & I met when we both joined the PTA. We went to meetings...helped in the school....and most importantly we formed an amazing friendship that has carried on thru elementary, middle & high school. And beyond!!! I just spoke to Cindy 4 days prior to this...and a few times recently prior to that call. Cindy and I just had fun together...such a great person, great wife, great mother, great Gigi...and great friend. I am so proud and so thankful to call her my dear friend. I will miss you so much...I love you Cindy. My prayers, thoughts & heart are with Ron and all of her family. 🙏 GOD BLESS YOU ALL. Rest well my friend ❤️

“ I wish today started as a normal day, but it didn't. I was shocked with the news that my beautiful, sister in law, passed over to the good Lord. I was shocked, devistated for her family, and in total disbelief. Cindy was just, simply put, Cool! As my husband, Sal, (her eldest brother) said, “ it should have been me, not her, I just loved her, I'm really gonna miss her”

The love and true obligation she had to her husband, children, and her most definitely beloved grandchildren is remarkable . The whole family is guaranteed to miss the best ever macaroni salad and that donkey donk! Cindy, I will truly miss you! This is a hard day!
