“ My condolences I worked with Dan at Delatorre. I always remember the times he made me smile and laugh when I worked with him. I remember the first time I met him he told me that he knew who I was because him and I hung out together at the Dairy Queen in White Oak where I grew up. I always told him I never knew who he was and he laughed and says that's because you weren't as good looking as I was that's why I didn't hang out with you.😂 He will not be forgotten.

Hi Brian. Thank you so much for your wonderful words and for sharing your "Dan" story. He had a wonderful and unique sense of humor. We miss him dearly. I am sorry that I am just responding now, but we are still finding this all so hard to accept. I have visited this obit several times to see his smile, but today, I also found your message. This morning Dan's mother, Marilyn, passed away. She is where she needs to be and I am glad Dan checked it all out before she got there. Thanks again for sharing. God Bless!
