“ My sisters and I first met Dolly in Edinburg before she and George were married. We would play "Mother May I and Simon Says" in the side yard. Their cottage is across the street from our families at the lake. I was 8 when I attended their wedding. Over the years Dolly always remembered our Birthday's, Christmas , Easter, Anniversaries ... A card was always in the mail.. I live in Georgia now and when they came down to visit Jim, we would shop till we dropped. Dolly loved shopping and was always looking for things to take home for Maddie and Alex. We went to the craft shows, malls and flea markets. Dolly loved the Disney Store and we visited it often. Sweet Dolly was always amazed that there were so many places to shop in Georgia. I will miss Dolly and know that she is Dancing to Polka music in heaven without pain. Heaven has gained another angel. ❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏 . To George, Jim, Karen, Joe, Maddie and Alex my sympathies are with you. Always remember to hold your precious memories close to your heart and that is where she will live forever. Many thoughts and prayers for all.

“ Dolly was my godmother and also one of my mother's best friends from as far back as high school. She always remembered me and kept in touch with my mother and me all these years. My mother was grateful they had the chance to spend time together at their 50th class reunion a few years ago. We will both keep her family in our thoughts and prayers. Pat & Christine Banycky

“ With deepest sympathy remembering the sweetest and kindest Dolly. So many fond memories at the lake from your wedding to the joyous births of Jimmy and Karen and how excited you were to become grandparents! I pray that all the joys in life will, in time, overcome the loss and sadness. Keeping you all close in thought and prayer at this sad time. Love Always, Linda and family
