“ John, Darlene and family,
I am so sorry to hear of Diane's passing. Please know you all are in my prayers! Diane always had a smile and was so happy. May she rest in peace.

“ Ok, wow, where to begin? I think 2 things stand out for me.....First one, she truly worshipped sun bathing....we went to a school (DECA) competition and in our hotel bathroom there was a heater lamp in the ceiling. Next thing I know, Diane pulled the luggage rack into the bathroom and I found her "laying out" in her undergarments! She was tanning.....smh, we didn't know if it worked or not, but by golly, she wasn't gonna take the chance of missing out. The second memory is of her driving....she absolutely refused to drive in the fast lane on the parkway. She didn't care, she would not drive next to that concrete barrier no matter how late we were. Diane was such a good friend and confidant. You know how people say the short ones are trouble? CASE and POINT! Love her and miss her!

“ Jeff... you were one of the first friends that I met... wasn't real sure of you ... once you met Diane you became someone I never expected... she brought out the best in you ... keep the pool... that may be where you find peace ... surround yourself in her memory she would like you to do that ... the kids and grandkids may also find solace floating around soaking up her memory... she was a beautiful person that brought out the best in you... continue to carry on in your work knowing she was very proud of your accomplishments... she will always be in your heart ❤️ hugs to you .. mil
