“ I first met Donnie when I was 9 or 10 years old in 1950 at the Highland Grove play ground. I was the smallest kid in our group of 15-20 boys. When Donnie had the chance, he would pick me first. I was like his little brother that he never had, When he went into the Air Force I wrote to him often. He went on to raise his family and so did I. After my wife passed in 2016, I re-established our friend talking every few weeks. It was about the Steelers and other football issues. How I was coping with my lost was a topic we covered. He will be greatly missed. LOVE YOU MAN.
