“ Dearest Beloved Brother,..Drew Sterling, my first best friend and my life time best friend, my protector ...my big brother. The only person who truly knew me from a child through adulthood. There are no words to describe the special bond and understanding connection we always shared. I am forever grateful and thankful for all the love you showed me and what a wonderful brother you were and forever will be. Even though you grew into a giant strong man you never lost your boy like qualities and outlook even during the most trying times in your life. I will miss your big safe hugs, those beautiful blue eyes that revealed to the world the most gentle and loving soul, your incredible sense of humor and your gentle chuckle that was ageless. It is so difficult to grasp you have passed over as you would say “ to the next life” I pray the overwhelming heartache , emptiness and enormous sadness I feel is replaced and filled one day by the countless wonderful memories, laughs, good times, even struggles we shared. I look forward to the day that comfort will come too from the knowledge knowing we will be together again. I know you will always be with me in spirit and in my heart until we are together again my sweet BRO-DIAN Angel. Forever loving you forever in my heart in my thoughts and thank-you Drew Sterling for all your love.
