“ Sarah and Troy,

I worked with Duane at JDMH. He was a wonderful person and had a sense of humor that was uncanny. I always loved his hard tack candy at Christmas time, especially the clove flavor, his Peanut Brittle which was homemade, and he would always bring in blind robins smoked salmon, and we would be eating it and stinking up the entire place! He spoke of the both of you with nothing but loving words. He truly was a family man.

He was a wonderful co worker and he could "dish it out", but he could "also take it", too. I'll miss him.

“ Sarah and Troy,

You have my sincere condolences. I have so many great memories, Dean and Duane playing sock games, playing golf in the back yard using a cane as a golf club, playing badminton over Opal's clothes line and then going to Becks for coke and banana flips afterwards. Opal was always trying to get Dean to do one thing or another but not Duane. He was a good boy. He did everything that he was supposed to do..I will miss him.
