“ We have such fond memories of Aunt Eleanor. We, and especially, Brennen and Hayden adored her and are so sad to hear of her passing. We always loved seeing Aunt Eleanor on Mother's Day when she came down with Grandma Freddie to go to the Steeplechase races. Always a beautiful day, and we loved having her with us!

PS

“ Eleanor was such a kind and compassionate lady. She helped me so much when I was a young teacher and guided me through to become a better teacher and person. She truly loved her students, fellow teachers, and her family. She always had a kind word to share with myself and my family. She enjoyed seeing my daughter always and treated her so kindly.
