“ I'm sorry for your loss. Great Aunt "Bootsie" was a very kind and generous woman. I got to spend some time with her. She always had a smile and a great laugh. She enjoyed her family very much. The childhood stories from all of my great aunts and uncle will stay with me forever. She will be missed.

“ I only had a few times to interact with Great Aunt 'Bootsie' in person. Nevertheless, every time, she was always always very sincere and welcoming. I know she was important to my father's life. GOD Bless! CHAD

“ Condolences to the family and so sorry for your loss. Boots was a “spitfire” and strong willed. She was one of the family to us and loved my boys like they were her own. She was a dear friend to my mom for so many years and I’m sure she will miss her dearly. I will miss seeing her smiling face on my mom’s couch when I go to visit, but I know heaven has gained an angel to watch over her. Maybe she’ll bring my mom good luck when she travels to the casino where Boots loved to visit. Prayers to you.
