“ My dear sweet cousin Eric. I will always remember Eric for his kindness and gentleness. I never heard a mean word come out of his mouth. I will always remember Eric for his memory of dates and events, which always amazed me. I will always remember Eric for his love of family. I will always remember Eric for his passion for sports, especially football, and his ability to remember all the stats associated with players and teams. I will always remember Eric for his strength in battling the disease that eventually took him from us. I will always remember Eric.

With Love,
Donna
