

Evelyn L. Farmer

March 28, 1917 - April 25, 2014

Evelyn L. (Rose) Farmer, 97, a resident of Redstone Highlands, Greensburg, formerly of North Huntingdon, died at home Friday, April 25, 2014. She was born March 28, 1917, in Rocky Gap, Va., the daughter of the late William J.D. and Bettie (Wilson) Rose, and was also preceded in death by her husband, George Coburn Farmer; and a son, Larry P. Tarr. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Murrysville, a former member of United Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, Irwin, and a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Evelyn enjoyed traveling, loved to play her organ, followed collegiate and Pittsburgh sports and was interested in all current events. She loved being with friends. Surviving is a daughter, Marjory J. Hobar, of Tampa, Fla.; grandchildren, Dr. P. Craig (Robin) Hobar and Coby Hobar (Eric); also great-grandchildren. A private viewing and funeral service will be held at the WILLIAM SNYDER FUNERAL HOME, 521 Main St., Irwin, 724-863-1200, with the Rev. H.J. Charles MacPherson officiating. Interment will be in Union Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Evelyn L. Farmer

October 07, 2023 at 10:37 AM

“ Evelyn L. Farmer

August 23, 2022 at 04:00 PM