“ I remember how my grandmother's (Dorothy Bendis) face would light up, and how she would giggle, when she talked about stories of her and Aunt Frances when they were kids. I heard many stories about those two playing, climbing and hiding in trees and roller skating. It's time for more fun, play on girls!

“ Aunt Frances, You told us many stores about your adventures with my mom. From hanging from the chicken coop rafters to getting sick for eating much cantaloupe, your childhood was one I saw in my dreams. Now you're with Dorothy again. Go get those roller skates! Your niece, Sandra Bendis Schwab

“ Always a pie baker. Never showed up for a visit without lemon meringue pie. Had so many funny stories about growing up. She will be missed.

“ My memory of Aunt Frances was her smile. She lit up the room. I can still hear her laughter. Rest in peace. Remembering you always. Donna Bendis Jones
