“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I always heard good things about Fred from my dad.

“ Fred was my Dad's roommate for a period of time at Concordia. He was always friendly and polite, a true gentleman. Everyone really enjoyed the tunes he would play on his harmonica and he could always be found in the hall having a pleasant chat with the other residents. He will surely be missed by all. My Dad also passed away this year, and right now he's probably asking Fred if he brought his harmonica with him.
