“ Fred was a close friend while working at WABCO.
We was a great coach, with similar interests, mechanical, machining, house building. Ect.ect.
Best teacher ever in my lifetime. He had an impressive ability to understand and pass on resolution in those areas that could be described as remarkable. He was always an Incredible help.
If I ever had a big brother he would my first, foremost pick, and best friend.
To his dear family, we were extremely fortunate to have him,
Sincere thoughts and prayers.

“ With Fred's passing, I share with sympathy your sorrows. Fred was a steady upbeat presence and i enjoyed his company at the Men's Prayer Fellowship as well as at other gatherings. He had a warm heart as evidenced by being quite comfortable in a light jacket in the winter time.

On a trip he and I made, as we closely traced their route, I enjoyed the history he related to me about the street cars that used to run from Irwin to Pittsburgh.

“ We share your loss and offer our sympathy, love and prayers. Fred was a faithful husband, great father, wonderful neighbor and trusted friend.

We will never forget our trips together to the Holy Lands, Italy, and Alaska. Memories that will last a lifetime.

May God bless you for your kindness to Fred when he needed you most.

Well done good and faithful wife and daughter.
