“ Fred was a great singer. His voice would boom over ours at rehearsals. He was a HUGE part of the chorus, & will be sorely missed.

One of my fondest memories that will always make me laugh was dress rehearsal for one show. We were doing Broadway. Me / 3 other guys were posed as 4 female murderers as a comedy routine. We came on stage, & I walked up to Fred where he was sitting, grabbed his cheek, & said hey big boy. He jumped, & we both laughed. After rehearsal we agreed to keep that in our show. During the show, he would act like he was going to hit me with his cane. It was a big part of the number.

Rest in Gods eternal love, & peace till we meet once again in song with the angels in that Heavenly choir that you are singing in now with our other past brothers.

“ Dear Pat, Freddie, Lisa and other family members. Very saddened to hear this news today and want you to know my thoughts and prayers are there with you all. Still can picture Fred standing at the bedroom window waving at the train when you visited us in Hartville, Ohio and also him singing for our 25th wedding anniversary. I arrived at Karen's in Corona, Ca. today and will return to Ohio on February 1st.

May the memories you've shared with Fred sustain you until you meet him in heaven.
