

Gary Robert Guyon

November 24, 1960 - August 28, 2024

Gary Robert Guyon, age 63, of Englewood, Florida, formerly of North Huntingdon, passed away August 28, 2024. He was born November 24, 1960 in Greensburg, a son of the late Robert and Norma Guyon. He is survived by his brother David (Sara) Guyon of North Huntingdon; and niece Hannah (Zachary) Truncali of Marlboro, New York. He graduated from Norwin High School in 1978, received his Bachelor's Degree in Music from Westminster College, and his Master's Degree in Music from Duquesne University. He was most recently the organist at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Venice Florida for over 14 years, and served in similar capacity for various other ministries over the past 40 years in the region of Sarasota Florida. Gary was a sincerely God loving and God fearing man with a heart of gold and passion for the under privileged and the poor. He dedicated his life in service to the Lord as an organist/pianist for the Catholic church and as a mission worker for the prison ministry, and he loved the Lord and anyone God put in his path. Anyone who knew Gary, knew he was generous and kind and never spoke a bad word about anyone. People around him enjoyed his company and sense of good humor and fun. Although a little quirky at times, he truly was a very bright and intelligent man with a keen understanding of all faiths and dedicated himself to more than just one organization. Gary was a pure soul and deeply devoted and in love with Jesus. Jesus decided to bring him home as his work was now accomplished, and he will be greatly missed. Services were private. A memorial service will be announced at a later time. Interment was at Penn Lincoln Memorial Park in North Huntingdon Township.

Arrangements were handled by the William Snyder Funeral Home, 521 Main Street, Irwin, 724-863-1200. Donations in Gary's honor can be made to Kairos Prison Ministry of Florida, www.kairosfl.org. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.

“ A sweet interesting soul that I've had the pleasure to know. My memories of Gary are comical but also spiritually based. He was a gift. I remember one of his mom's best memories that she fondly spoke about was when Gary started grade school the teacher had to allow him to play at the piano first before he could settle down to do any school work! I now believe Gary is playing the organ for his King...

My deepest sympathies to the Guyon family, Gary was an unbelievable talent and will be deeply missed. I initially met Gary at Calvary Baptist Church and was amazed by his musical talent. He was very inspiring and a role model, he would take command of an instrument with such confidence at a young age. I truly believe Gary is leading the heavenly orchestra.

Gary Gave his all for the music ministry at Lourdes in Venice FL. Immense talent but also incredible humility. He was always engaging and would speak with newcomers as if friends. He loved his community and above all his Lord Jesus Christ. He served right to the end of his days. May God richly bless him.

Gary was an organ student of mine in his high school years. He was a brilliant fellow and so into music. He would memorise one piece after another. I went to his organ recitals at Westminster College, where he studied with Raymond Ocock, and at Duquesne University, where he was a student of Ann Labounsky. Gary's parents were so very supportive of his interests. Requiescat in Pace (Rest in Peace) dear Gary.
