

George J. Adamson

December 24, 1938 - February 27, 2017

George J. Adamson, 78, formerly of North Huntingdon, died Monday February 27, 2017 while visiting in Georgia. He was born December 24, 1938 in Jeannette, the son of the late George J. Sr. and Gladys Stitley Adamson and was also preceded in death by his wife of nearly fifty years Dolores A. "Dolly" (Welsh) Adamson on July 19, 2016. George graduated from the University of Pittsburgh and received his master's degree from Edinboro University. He was a retired school teacher for the Norwin School District where he was yearbook advisor and an English teacher for over 30 years. He was a member of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Irwin, a member of the Train Collectors Association, the Westmoreland Atari Computer Organization, and enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren. He missed his wife terribly and longed to be with her. He is survived by his children, Jim Adamson of Atlanta, GA, and Karen Mehs and her husband Joe of Erie; and his grandchildren Madeline and Alexander Mehs. Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at the William Snyder Funeral Home Inc., 521 Main Street, Irwin, 724-863-1200, where a funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday with Dr. Clifton J. Suehr, officiating. Interment will follow in Union Cemetery. For online condolences please visit www.snyderfuneralservices.com.

“ I was about 8 years old when I attended Dolly and George's wedding.

Before they got married they would play "Mothe May I " and "Simon Says" with my sisters and I in the side yard.

I will always remember the Hickory Street volleyball games and the neighborhood picnics. Espically the July 4th festivities.

Since Jim moved to the Atlanta area I was able to see Dolly and Geodge when they visited. We would spend time shopping in the malls and all of the small town festivals.

Most recently George spent Super Bowl Sunday in our home. Watching football and having snacks and a meal.

Hickory Street will never be the same!

George will be missed and my thoughts and prayers are with Karen and Jim.

“ Jim & Karen, we extend our thoughts & prayers to you on the loss of George. He was one of the first to greet us when we moved to Hickory Street in Edinboro. He always showed concern for others & we will miss seeing him make his walks to Edinboro Lake & back.
