“ Georgie (as we called him in the 50's) was one of our best friends growing up on Lincoln Ave back in the 1950's. I first knew George when they lived up the stairs over his Grandpaps garage on Penn Ave. I haven't seen George in many years since I moved to Ohio, but I've always remembered him and the great times we had in North Irwin. Sorry to read of his passing. Randy Anderson

“ My deepest condolences to George's family. We were good friends in our youth, and we spent many of our summer days together at the North Irwin Playground playing baseball. George was an outstanding baseball player who possessed a lot of hitting power at all baseball levels. I also believe George was a very good pitcher. Usually after the playground had closed, around noon, we headed over to a vacant lot on Broadway, where Whitey Weston eventually built his house. At that lot we didn't have a lot of room for baseball, so we had many wiffle-ball games. Also, George was also the usual instigator of fierce wrestling battles with the Planks, Doug and Mike. They were mostly held in the then vacant lot across from the Patrick's house. A lot of great baseball, and humorous memories.
