“ Georgeanne, although we've never met you've touched my life in a way that not even words can explain and though I've never met your granddaughter Mallory, other than she and I exchanging an early morning text that day regarding the possibility of your whereabouts, I could tell you've touched her heart in a way that only a grandmother can and that she loved you very much. May you rest in heavenly peace with you husband and God bless your family with peace as they mourn. My deepest sympathy...
