“Gigi and I have been friends for 47 years. We grew up together, we grew our families up together and we were supposed to grow old together. I am heartbroken, she is gone way too soon. I met Gigi when we were both teens working at Falk Clinic and we became fast friends. Gigi had an infectious smile and laugh, she loved people and accepted everyone, especially an underdog. Gigi loved family, friends, nature and God. We lived together, worked together and played together. Gigi was the smartest of all our friends and definitely the leader. Before kids, our adventures included flying to California, driving to South Carolina and camping trips too many to count. I will never forget these times, they made me who I am today. We both got married and had kids and the adventures continued, we celebrated many birthdays, New Years Eve parties and so many camping trips. We raised our girls together, going to the beach in Erie, camping at Yogi Bear, Kooser and trips to Ohio Pyle and Cucumber Falls so many memories. Gigi was always prepared, you may start out for an afternoon adventure and she would spontaneously decide we would just set up camp for a night or two. I will never forget the blue van filled with everything one would need: the orange bag of camping pans, tents, sleeping bags and clothes for all. We celebrated our girls graduating high school, getting married and having their own children. Gigi was so proud of her girls and loved her grandkids with all her heart. Love of family was always the most important Gigi and I am blessed to have been her friend and “sister.” Gigi was THE BEST at sending cards she never missed a birthday, St. Patrick’s Day, Mothers Day or Thanksgiving. I will miss the confetti flying everywhere when I opened them up. Not long ago I was able to spend a week with Gigi at the beach in North Carolina and we walked the beach collecting seashells and taking in the beauty of the ocean. The adventure had come full circle. I will treasure all these memories and grieve for what should have been, but I am confident you are in the arms of Jesus with all your family and friends who have gone before you. My dear friend, your passing has left a deep hole in my heart, please watch over me until we meet again in heaven. I love you and miss you

“ My memories of Gigi are of a dear and special childhood friend who was always up for adventure and fun....whether it was playing school in her basement, riding our bikes, whiling away the day in the woods behind her house, climbing outside of the bedroom window to sit on the roof of the addition on her house, slumber parties, riding bikes, playing kickball, swimming at Forest Hills pool or the swim club near BlackRidge, forecasting our futures on the ouija board, going to Uniontown to visit her grandmother, walking to St. Maurice through the cat tails, or joining our parents at any one of the infamous Friday night house parties (O'Connor's, Rushe's, Chismar's or McGinley's).....Gigi was a loyal, loving, dedicated and beautiful person and friend. As we grew older, we didn't see each other nearly like we did when we grew up, but, I am forever grateful for the times we visited with each other at her mom's on Greensburg Pike and when we met up in Washington DC to catch up on our lives...I know Gigi was so proud of her children and grandchildren....she lit up each time she spoke of them.....I also know she had a deep faith that sustained her and I'm certain she is in the arms of her dear mother, again. My deepest sympathy to her children, grandchildren and siblings Kitty, Maribeth, Regina and Tim.....Gigi....you may be gone from our sight, but you are never gone from our heart...
