“ My dad was a member of the support staff at St. Robert's School with Mrs. Bellis. She was universally loved. Prior to that, I attended that same school with her children. She was a wonderful mother, a devoted woman of faith and a humble individual that was a pleasure to know. May she rest in peace.

“ As a young girl, I remember quietly kneeling next to my Great Aunt Gerry in church. The smell of her perfume, her soft white sweater, her delicate earrings - all adorning her as she sang "How Great Thou Art" in her voice ever beautiful to my ears, a cherished memory never to be forgotten. Her kindness and love linger in my heart, wrapped in the warmth of that sacred space.

*I will always love my Great Aunt Gerry,
Danielle*
