“Connie, Diane, Chris and family. We are sorry to learn about the loss of your Mother. We have fond memories with her, especially at the Siegel Family reunions at our house and Eric Walt's. Also. Years ago the senior Siegel cousins would get together after the Christmas/New Year's holidays. This was to replace the Christmas family gathering in Hahntown at Aunt Martha's and Aunt Elsie's house. There were Gloria & Louis, Patsy & Bud, JoAnne & Bob, Carl & Sue and Pat & I. We would take turns hosting the dinner at each other's house. There was always a lot of good food and drink !!

We remember when at our house your Mother made 2 changes; (1) She changed the radio station to play "big band – Lawrence Welk" type music which she favored and (2) She changed the toilet paper in the bathroom to roll to the back so that it hangs down, instead of how we do it.

Again, our condolences and hope you can reflect back on all the good times you had with your Mother.

“ *I loved seeing my Gloria at the annual Siegel reunions. Gloria would share her memories of my mother with me. I will miss her smile. Diane, Connie, Chris and family. I pray that after healing time has passed, you will feel the love you shared more than the loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
Love you Jackie & Bob Nehez*
