“ Hi ! I am Marci Allshouse, I live at the Penn Crossing Senior Village where I met and got to meet Gloria while she lived here. She was a very sweet and kind Lady. She always said Hi to everyone and was always a happy person. I am very sorry I missed her services. I have MS and have been having some not so good days lately. But I will miss her every day. I go past her door to get my mail and I loved seeing her beautiful flower wreath she has hanging on her door. Makes me smile. Please accept my sincere symphany to her whole family. She loved talking about you all. Take care. Prayers to you all also.
