“ From the time you brought me Oreos at night when I stayed with your family as a kid, to riding across the Westinghouse Bridge on a sofa in the back of an open air pick up truck, to those family cookouts we had on your folks' deck. We shared many of good times together. I will forever miss you my cousin. May you rest in eternal peace.

Hi eddie,
You made me chuckle when i read about the sofa ! Im pretty sure i remember him tell me that story. My dad was a funny dude. We just recently had a great laugh on the porch. Our stomachs hurt from laughing. Ill never ever forget my dad. I know in my heart that many people like him. He was loved.

I moved away from West Mifflin and just found out about Millie... did not know you had passed. I loved how we ended up living near each other then our son's being buds. Heaven is jumping now that your silly wonderful wife has joined you!!
