“ My condolences to the Blissman family. I was a neighbor of the Blissmans during WWII. Mrs. Blissman published two songs and she commissioned me to do the artwork for the covers. I have been a professional artist all my life and that was the beginning of my career.

“ I am sending sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Blissman. I'm Karen Bertoluzzi. I lived on Vine Street. When I was in college your mother asked me to give her piano lessons. She told me she "wanted to do do re mi by 53." And so I would stop at her house and began teaching her how to read music. I never understood why she wanted to learn to read music when she had a natural talent to play the piano by ear. I remember her sweetness toward me and her self determination. I have this sweet memory and am happy to share it with you.
