“ The Atlantic was our border but still we were close. What we enjoyed and deeply loved we can never lose, for all that you always will be in our hearts.

I like to think back to my young years and first visits to America when Henry Heer and his wife Pat welcomed me in Pittsburgh.

You have left many beautiful memories that will never fade from my heart.

Rest in peace dear Henry!

Wishing to the mourning family peace, comfort, courage, and lots of love at this time of sorrow.
