“ I will never forget the way that Jim so thoughtfully and intentionally made me feel included and important at a family wedding this past July, especially as I continue to mourn my own father's sudden and untimely passing. The world is a little quieter and more dull without Jim in it, but his memory and legacy live on through Riley and Dylan and the memories they share, through the dedication and love he had for Steph, and through the obvious impact that he made on countless others over the course of his life. Jim will be sorely missed, but loved and remembered forever.

“ My favorite memory of Jimmy was riding motorcycles with him and the rest of our gang growing up in Green Valley behind the fire hall. He was funny as hell.
