“ Mr. Hazlett was the teacher that cared about his students and was by far the best teacher in my 12 years in the Jeannette school system. A friend and I started nearly every morning in the cafeteria sitting and chatting with him. He always laughed at our jokes. He was a standup guy. Always encouraging.

“ So sad to hear of Mr. Hazlett's passing. He pushed me to be a better writer and taught me to be skeptical of the accepted narrative of events. Both skills helped me have a career as a journalist. I hope he realized how much his teaching improved the lives of his students, and what great mentors his students have from being in his class.

“ My condolences to the family. Mr. Hazlett made a huge impact on my life. He was a wonderful person and an exceptional teacher. He always made sure to teach not only the material, but life lessons as well. He is the reason I became an English teacher. I hope that I am at least half as good as he was. His memory will always live on with all of his students.

“ Deepest thoughts and prayers for the Hazlett family during this time of loss. Mr. Hazlett touched so many lives over his career and I was blessed to be in his homeroom and in his classes. He brought out the reader in me and I am so thankful for his passion for reading and the choices he selected. He introduced you to books which opened doors to different worlds, historical events, poetry, Shakespeare and everything in between. Even 24 years later I still remember things he taught. Jeannette was blessed to have him and I am forever grateful to call him teacher. Praying for healing during this time and thinking of his wife, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

“ Debbie and family,

*I extend to all of you my deepest sympathies on the loss of Jim. He was my friend. What more can I say. A long time ago, I read that a friend was somebody who saw you for who you really are, but still liked you. That is what our relationship was like. We saw each other for who we were, but we still liked each other. I think we disagreed on everything politically and we had many, shall I say, "discussions" expressing our opinions. Our "discussions" started in 1970 (that is when I got hired at Jeannette) and lasted til our last weekly lunch together, (due to the pandemic) in late Feb. 2020. During the pandemic shut down we still spoke with each on the phone, and of course, our "discussions" continued. During the shutdown, I still sent him articles that would support my side of our "discussions". Over the years, we were never able change the mindset of the other, but that was part of our friendship. We were about to resume our weekly lunches in June of this year, but the Delta variant spiked, so we decided to hold off til things got better. Despite our differences of opinion on certain issues, there were many things we could talk about and agreed upon because we were the same age and we could relate through our life experiences. Jim was my friend. I will miss my friend. What more can I say. May God grant him eternal peace. In the words of church Slavonic, Vicnaja Pamjat (Eternal Memory). I will pray for my friend.*
