“ Jim was a great man, who was always good to me. All of my memories of Jim are fond ones, and most are downright funny, which tells you a lot about him. My favorite memory, and funniest, was the time we all went sky diving. My condolences to you, Tanya, Jaime, Kenny, and the rest of the family. It's a cliché, but remember the good times. Tonight, I'll raise a glass to Jim, just like he would have wanted.
