“ Jim and his family used to live next door to me on Memory Lane in Liberty Boro before they moved to North Huntington. We were very young and he was my first friend. We were inseparable while he lived there. I'm sorry we lost touch after he moved away. My condolences to Harold, Elaine, Cindy and his entire family.

“ Jim was a what you see is what you get kind of guy. He was the real deal, the original article. He genuinely cared about his role as a friend. So many laughs, so many fun memories. I didn't realize how much I loved the guy until I heard of his passing. I remember seeing him at Walmart a few years back when I visited my mother in Pa. Him and Judy both looked great! I only saw someone upset with him one time. We were driving back from an epic adventure to Myrtle Beach. Steve Bucklew was driving. Myself and Ozzy (Jim Ozborn) rounded out the all-star crew. Something wasn't right. Steve spoke up and said, "OK, who stepped in the dog shit?" We all checked our shoes, but Jim was half asleep. Finally, Steve said, "OK, everybody out of the car." Jim was the lucky fellow with the dirty on his shoes. Steve was so mad. We made Jim take off his shoes and put them in a plastic bag in the trunk. About 10 miles down the road we came to realized that the shoes had to take one for the team. We pulled over and threw them away. With the windows down a few miles later, we were able to pull our heads back in the car and roll up the windows and put on the AC. I really felt sorry for the dog who laid that down. He must have been suffering. That just wasn't right.

Everyone loved Jim There are a very few people I can say that about and be truthful.

“ So many memories with such an awesome guy. From Chucky Cheese outings as a kid with Jim & Judy, our trip to Niagra Falls when our camper was about to roll away down a hill with us in it, watching Jim play softball in a church mens league, to Fishing/boating at Prince Gallitzen, Uncle Jim standing in the door waiting for Nick & Kylie to come give hugs on our way out of town, playing the saran wrap ball game at Xmas...when I knew better than to sit next to Jim. I feel like I could go on forever. Every memory I have is a great one which makes this so hard!! We will miss you so much....but will carry these memories. We love you Jim!!
