“ Mom designed and sewed costumes that I wore during the New Years Day Mummings parade. Her design once made the cover of the Pittsburgh Press. That picture hangs in my office.

“ My mom was a great seamstress, among other things. She taught me to sew patches on my old blue jeans as an teenybopper, probably thinking I looked like a bum, but never said anything - just taught me how to sew. Thanks mom!

“ Not having been in Mr. and Mrs. Cameron's company frequently, a memory is still burned into my mind of a genteel, kind, soft spoken couple who were so loving and proud of Jessica and Alex and assuredly of Sharon and Dan. I remember how important Christmas Eve Mass was to them and how appreciative of Sharon and Dan bringing their children to celebrate this joyous Mass. Now, they can all celebrate her accomplished, family centered life. God has blessed all of the Cameron's with Mrs. Cameron's life.
