

Jean Spornak

January 5, 1943 - May 20, 2014

Jean (Bradley) Spornak, 71, of Irwin, passed away peacefully Tuesday, May 20, 2014, in UPMC Shadyside, with her family at her side, from complications of diabetes. She was born Jan. 5, 1943, in Homestead, and raised in Dravosburg. She was a daughter of the late Felix and Veronica (Houck) Bradley. She was a member of Harrold Zion Lutheran Church, an accomplished tole painter and a dedicated Cub Scout, Brownie and Girl Scout leader for her children. She enjoyed reading, gardening and being MeMa to her five grandchildren. She is survived by her husband, Leon H. "Lee" Spornak; her children, Tracey (Dean) Faulk, of Greensburg, Michael (Eleanore) Spornak, of Warminster, and Leanna Spornak, of Nutter Fort, W.Va.; grandchildren, Shawn and Troy Faulk and Connor, Morgan and Emily Spornak; a sister, Marjorie Baylor, of Willits, Calif.; a brother, Ronald (Marilou) Bradley, of Pickerington, Ohio; also several nieces and nephews. Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at the WILLIAM SNYDER FUNERAL HOME, 521 Main St., Irwin, 724-863-1200. Additional visitation will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday in Harrold Zion Lutheran Church, 671 Baltzer Meyer Pike, Greensburg, where a funeral service will follow at 11 a.m. with the Rev. John Smaligo officiating. Interment will follow in Harrold Zion Lutheran Cemetery. The family would like to thank the Unit 200 staff at The Rehabilitation and Nursing Center, Greensburg, the staff at UPMC Shadyside Third Floor West ICU and her home health care providers for all their kind and loving care. Those wishing may make a contribution in Jean's name to a charity of their choice.
