“ Joan was a vibrant, witty, person who was an outstanding wife, mother, and grandma to her children and grandchildren. Bonnie and I offer our sympathy and prayers to Carl Jr. and Eric and their families as they encounter the grieving process. I am certain that Joan is in heaven and she has prepared a meal for Wendy, Lisa, and Carl. However, Carl is not present since he is out scouting for Jesus' basketball team.

“ I am so very saddened that our dear Joanie has passed away. I worked with Joan in the County treasurers office years ago. Joan was one of a kind. I admired her so much. Strong, funny and a genuine good lady. She trained me when I first came there. One thing I have always remembered and have repeated on occasion, is the phrase, “when your dumb, you suffer”. How true. It was always so nice and honestly warm when I would get to see her after her and Carl moved to Greensburg. She would come back to Indiana for special events or what ever. She was a smart lady, one of the best. She will be missed.
