

Joan Kay Johnson

March 24, 1943 - December 21, 2020

Joan Kay (Weaver) Johnson, 77, of Greensburg, died Monday December 21, 2020. She was born March 24, 1943 in Canton, OH, a daughter of the late Laurence A. and Virginia J. (Scott) Weaver. Joan worked as a seamstress, a security guard, and also as a home health care aid. She had participated in a clown ministry and volunteered with the Headstart program. She enjoyed anything to help people out. She is survived by her children Sheri L (Stephen Sr.) Perry of New Stanton, Robert S. Johnson of Greensburg, and Eric M. (Amanda) Johnson of Tampa, FL; 7 grandchildren; 4 great grandchildren; and a sister Barbara A. Weaver of Greensburg. Friends will be received from 3 to 5 p.m. Monday December 28, at Suburban Community Church, 1787 Arona Rd., Irwin, where a funeral service will follow at 5 p.m. Interment will be in Forest Hill Cemetery, Canton, OH. In lieu of flowers a contribution can be made to a charity of choice. The William Snyder Funeral Home, Irwin, is in charge of arrangements. “ I would like to offer my condolences to the Johnson family.

Ms. Joan was a sweet woman! I always enjoyed my conversations with her at RNC.

Covid aside, one of her joys was when she was able to visit with her children and grandchildren! how she enjoyed those! The love and pride she had when she received a new picture to show!

May he Lord hold Joan in His Hands.

May the family find comfort & strength in the days ahead.

You are in my thoughts and prayers.
