“ It’s with a heavy heart I write to you my brother I really never had. We were raised as more than just cousins. I will forever cherish our memories from childhood into adulthood. You’ve stood by my side through thick and thin and had my back no matter if I was right or wrong and I too had yours at all costs. I prayed for you everyday, but god took you home so I guess there was another plan for you. The plan is by means what I wanted though. I know you’re still watching over me and I will forever hear you say “cmon Shar, what are you doing?” One things for certain I will miss you and miss the fact that you never held back on saying what was on your mind. Sometimes forcing me to see the right when I was wrong. I love you Day, you’ll forever be my big brother. Until we meet again....

“ We’ve been friends since I was 16!! You’ve always been the nicest most honest person ever!! No matter how long we went without seeing each other, you would always tell me, "James, are you sure those are real?" Or "James, you’ll be alright!" Thank you for ALWAYS being Brother John!! I’m so glad I got hugs and an I love you before you left!! Xoxo

“ Can't believe your gone my brother. I love you man. We were brothers from different mothers. I remember when we cut our fingers touched our cuts and became blood brothers hahahaha. We were stupid and carefree. Your the 1st one that told me don't hit your sister in the chest cause they have boobs hahaha thanks for that tip. You helped me learn how to ride a bike as a crashed into the bamboo in the backroad several times. I am out of town and can't make john day, and it hurts me not to be there. I can here you say. Have a good time don't worry about it. I have you right here❤️

“Neph” words cannot express the sorrow that I feel . There will only ever be one Johnny ,a man that no matter what had my back as I had yours . I will miss you so very much. The phone calls to say “ hey unc “ are gone forever. I would have given anything to save you and I am sorry that I couldn't. These last few weeks have been the hardest times of my life knowing no matter how much Tammy and I prayed , cried and begged for a miracle it was not to be and in the end God came and took the best nephew , friend , confidant that a person could ever have . Fly pain free my friend we will always have your back and the promise that I made you will never be broken. I love you ❤️
