“ John was such a wonderful person. I would sit with him and Mary Ann and do a puzzle with them forever. Just sitting and talking with John and hearing all his stories. It was truly a blessing to know him

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of Uncle John. I know he had health issues later in life, but in my mind he will always be the man that made waffles with bacon after church on Sunday. The man that couldn't swim, but would be out there in the ocean with us on vacations in Ocean City or Myrtle Beach by day, and shore fish with my Dad by night. The man that, with my Dad, would be out in the screened in room when we were vacationing in Ocean City, cooking up that pot of crabs we had just caught that afternoon. The man with the huge smile on his face as he drove the truck, pulling the boat, to go down to the river. So many images in my mind that I'll carry with me forever.
