“ Karen and I grew up on the same street in Wilkins Twp and were friends from the first grade. We shared so many experiences and a lot of laughter. After high school we went separate ways, but I was privileged to know her husband Bob as he rode four of us classmates to town when we attended Robert Morris. How fortunate they were to have such a long marriage and wonderful family. Karen was a good and kind friend and even though we didn't see each other often, a friend that you grow up with is your friend forever. My sympathy to Bob and the family of Karen, in this great loss.
